

TCU Justice & Advocacy Network
Office of Religious and Spiritual Life
Program Fund Application

Forms are due four weeks before the planned program or event to 1st floor Jarvis Hall, Office of Religious and Spiritual Life. An electronic form may be emailed to tjan@tcu.edu. The maximum amount available to each program is $250. Any questions can be directed to tjan@tcu.edu or by calling x7830. While being a part of TJAN is not required, it is suggested.

Organization Name:

Student Contact:

Contact Email:

Contact Phone:

Event/Program Name:

Program Date(s):

Description of Program:

Goals/Outcome of Program

How does this program benefit or educate the campus?

List campus organizations or community partners you are working with on this program (if applicable):

Are any of them also part of TJAN? Yes No

If yes, which group?

Total Cost of Program: Amount Requested (not to exceed $250):

Will you have funding from other sources? Yes No

If so, how much? From where?

Please provide a Budget Breakdown here or in an attached document (Microsoft Excel welcomed):

Please list any other comments or information about your event you'd like to include:

You will be notified of your funding status within a week of summiting your form. If funding is awarded, any receipts may be turned into the main desk in RSL. In certain cases, RSL can help you with purchasing. Please email tjan@tcu.edu for questions or call x7830.

